

Academy Award® Nomination Qualifying Standard Theatrical Run "2022 Black History Month" Premiere

In Southern California at Lumiere Music Hall September 16-22, 2022 Festival.Filmocracy.com/OSCARS presents Phillip E. Walker's Video Memoir which chronicles his 1950 birth as an artist activist thru his arrival at Black History Month 2022.

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. - Sept. 7, 2022 - PRLog -- PhilE (stage name) will personally attend all seven days of World Premiere screenings for this OSCAR nomination qualifying standard theatrical run of his independently made film. With free admission available to entertainment industry and media personnel at AllEvents.by/PhilE, this prolific California talent welcomes all to join him for Hollywood styled red carpet photos at the September 16th Opening Day Gala.

With San Jose State University Television-Radio-Film-Theatre Professor Emeritus Dr. Ethel Pitts Walker supplying research for this production, while newly retired Indiana State University Accessibility Services and Inclusion Accessibility Resource Office and Center for Student Success Director Hope D. Williams served as photograph archivist, Alberto Anya Lopez created sound design for the film. Produced by his African American Drama Company, all other aspects of this creation were delivered by Phillip Eugene Walker himself.

Including a Phillip E. Walker Lifetime Achievement award, two Best Performer of the Year nods and a Best Sound Engineer of the Year honor, to date "2022 Black History Month" has won 67 awards from 76 nominations thru 64 festival selections in 13 countries on 5 continents. Therefore, this movie is one of Walker's most celebrated productions. The film was appropriately completed on the February 1, 2022 Lunar New Year.

With BHM2022Media.com targeting entertainment industry professionals, additional general information is available at <http://2022BlackHistoryMonth.com> and free admission for entertainment industry and/or media personal can be reserved at <https://allevents.in/beverly%20hills/80003275294084>.

WEA hopes to have you photographed live & in-person with Philip this month on the "2022 Black History Month - a Phillip E. Walker Video Memoir" OSCAR nomination qualifying standard theatrical run Hollywood styled red carpet at Lumiere Music Hall, 9036 Wilshire Blvd., Beverly Hills, California 90211 USA.
