

Serenity Vista Joins the Ultra-Select Private Luxury Rehabs for the Rich & Famous

Where do people of fame go for help with a drinking problem?

BOQUETE, Panama - Oct. 23, 2023 - PRLog -- There are a plethora of drug rehabs spreading across America, many of them owned by large corporate conglomerates, in response to the sadly growing addiction epidemic. These are mostly large institutions with dozens to hundreds of patients, designed to attract patients from the general population.

But, where does the high-profile business executive, professional, famous, or person of notoriety go when they realize drinking has become a problem? Privacy is of utmost importance. Avoiding the scrutiny of the media and public attention is paramount. So, where to go for excellent, yet very private help?

To date, a very select group of luxury rehabs top the list to cater to this demographic, including Paracelsus Recovery (Zurich, Switzerland), Privé-Swiss (Lausanne, Switzerland), and Promises Malibu (Malibu, California).

Serenity Vista, is now included among this very exclusive list, meeting an important need for a small demographic who, like all people, deserve excellent, compassionate treatment for addiction when needed.

The ultimate in privacy

Serenity Vista is located in a remote and secluded highland area of Panama, making it the perfect place to escape the prying eyes of the media and medical, legal, and insurance authorities. The center offers luxurious accommodations, including private suites. The cuisine is spectacular.

And the grounds and gardens are the most beautiful and expansive imaginable.

Luxurious setting for world-class therapy

In addition to its luxurious accommodations and amenities, Serenity Vista also offers a world-class treatment program. The center's staff is highly trained and experienced in treating addiction, and they offer a variety of evidence-based and holistic therapies.

The Perfect Choice for the Famous & High-Profile

Serenity Vista is the perfect choice for the wealthy, famous, and high-profile individuals who are seeking the ultimate in privacy and luxury during their addiction treatment. The center's remote location, strict no-media policy, and experienced professional staff make it the ideal place to recover from addiction without having to worry about being seen or photographed.

Serenity Vista is not a typical 'drug rehab', with dozens of patients lining up in the cafeteria with plastic trays. No more than 6 clients are accepted at any one time. From the moment a guest arrives at the front door, they are treated with the utmost of respect, compassion, with individualized care and attention.

If you are wealthy, famous, or a high-profile individual who is struggling with drinking, Serenity Vista is now regarded as one of the excellent choices to choose from world-wide. It may be the perfect place for you to get the help you need with the guarantee of the ultimate in privacy and excellence in luxury treatment.
