

New Year, New Leadership: Questpro Appoints Taylor Jones and Jason Keck as Partners To The Firm

DALLAS - Jan. 9, 2024 - PRLog -- As Questpro embraces the dawn of a new year, the leading insurance staffing and recruitment firm proudly announces the appointment of Taylor Jones and Jason Keck as Partners to the firm. This strategic move signifies the company's commitment to continued growth and innovation, with Jones and Keck poised to contribute significantly to Questpro's leadership and growth.

Taylor Jones, Vice President of Business Development, and Jason Keck, Vice President of Life Practice, have both exemplified exceptional leadership and unwavering dedication to Questpro's client partners, candidates, and overall business growth. Their promotion to the esteemed role of Partner is a testament to their outstanding contributions and the pivotal roles they have played in shaping the company's trajectory.

Kevin Burch, CEO, expressed enthusiasm about this appointment, stating, "As we embark on the new year, we extend a warm welcome to Taylor Jones and Jason Keck as the newest Partners with Questpro. Their proven leadership, strategic vision, and commitment to excellence align seamlessly with our company values and the direction we are headed. We are confident in their ability to drive continued success for Questpro, and today, we celebrate all of their many accomplishments."

Jones and Keck will join forces with the existing team of partners, Kevin Burch, Johnny Park, Kathy Gilman O'Brien and Jillanna Pomelow, further fortifying Questpro's position as an industry leader. The company looks forward to their invaluable contributions to strategic initiatives and overall organizational success.
